

How to ID a Dog Handler

By

George L. Conklin

The Dog handler has.....

1. Been bitten
2. Been peed on
3. Stepped in a pile.
4. Has eaten his share of dog hair.
5. Got tripped up in the leash, fell in his ass. Only to have the dog laugh at him. (yes, in their own way they do laugh)
6. Had to fight the dog so he the handler could eat his own C-rats and or MRE.
7. Given the dog a little some thing extra. (contraband, i.e. Jerky, a bone from the chow hall etc.)
8. Had that special connection with that dog, that only a dog handler can have.
9. Found more dog hair on his uniform, than he has on his head.
10. Both have known the fear of battle.
11. Felt great sorrow at the time of separation

..... AND WOULD DO IT AGAIN IN A NEW YORK MINNUTE !!!!!
